Volunteer Your Time and Opinion to Help Researchers Learn More About Living with Nontuberculous Mycobacteria (NTM)

You may contribute valuable information that may help others in the future.

You will be compensated $125 for participating in this study.

You can help researchers learn more about the symptoms and impacts of NTM and treatment on patients' lives.

WHAT IS THIS STUDY ABOUT?

- Researchers are hoping to learn more about living with NTM.
- The interviews will be conducted remotely/virtually by phone and will last approximately 60 minutes.
